Women in Aviation Alamo City Chapter will be awarding two $500 scholarships to applications interested in careers in aviation and aerospace. Applicants must be attending or have been accepted into a college, university or technical school for the 2019 Fall session, since if scholarship is awarded, the money will be sent directly to the school.

These requirements are the minimum for all scholarships unless otherwise indicated.

Please include two stapled (no folders) complete application sets (one original and one copy) of the following information:

1. Two one-page recommendation letters
2. Typed, descriptive 250-word essay
3. Professional résumé (if applicable)
4. Official transcripts or verification for GPA
5. Copies of all aviation and medical certificates and the last three pages of your pilot logbook (if applicable).
6. Descriptive essay and résumé should address the following:
  - your aviation history and goals
  - what you have done for yourself to achieve your goals
  - where you see yourself in five years
  - how the scholarship will help you achieve your objective and your present financial need
  - flight or other training/education for which you need assistance; how your previous training was financed
  - educational scholarships, awards, and honors
  - where you would obtain the training and the hourly rate for the instructor, aircraft, and simulators, or other costs (if applicable)
  - demonstrated involvement in aviation activities

Scholarship may be applied for by mail (WAI Scholarship, ATTN: Mel Vasquez, 255 E Lambert, San Antonio, TX 78204) or electronically through the WAI Alamo City Chapter (sanantonio@waichapters.org, Subject: Scholarship.)

Please submit your application only when you have all of the necessary files ready.

Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Do not apply electronically and mail a paper application for the scholarship.

Should you wish to print out the application form and submit your application on paper, all application materials can be submitted in the same envelope.
