Women in Aviation Alamo City Chapter will be awarding one $1,500 scholarship to applications interested in careers in aviation and aerospace or those who are already in the workforce and want to expand their career in/into aviation. Applicants must be attending or have been accepted into a college, university, technical school, flight school, continuing education course or aviation related training program for the 2024 fall session. When scholarship is awarded, the money will be sent directly to the school or training program.

These requirements are the minimum for all scholarships unless otherwise indicated.

Please include two stapled (no folders) complete application sets (one original and one copy) of the following information:

1. Two one-page recommendation letters – teachers, co-workers, coaches, etc. No family members.
2. Typed, descriptive 250-word essay
3. Professional résumé (if applicable)
4. Official transcripts or verification for GPA (if applicable)
5. Copies of all aviation and medical certificates and the last three pages of your pilot logbook (if applicable).
6. Descriptive essay and résumé should address the following:
  - your aviation history (if any) and goals
  - what you have done or are planning to do for yourself to achieve your goals
  - where you see yourself in five years
  - how the scholarship will help you achieve your objective and your present financial need
  - flight or other training/education for which you need assistance; how your previous training was financed
  - educational scholarships, awards, and honors
  - where you would obtain the training and the hourly rate for the instructor, aircraft, and simulators, or other costs (if applicable)
  - demonstrated involvement in aviation activities
7. New this year: Applicant will be invited to attend the WAI Alamo City's 10th Anniversary Celebration Luncheon on June 13, 2024 to be recognized in attaining this scholarship.
